Macarthur Rams' Warren Hayward scored in bizarre circumstances to give his side a rather unusual 2-1 victory over St George in round three of the NSW super league.

With only 11 minutes remaining, Hayward went over to take a corner and with the assistance of the strong winds his cross curled directly into the goal.

St George, on a high after Friday's win over Leichhardt, took an early lead after 14 minutes through midfielder John Pillemer.

But David Reid equalised just before halftime and with the wind at their backs, the Rams always looked the more likely to get a winner.

Parramatta Eagles, victors over the Rams on Saturday night, shook off a bad injury toll and Mauricio Islas' 22nd minute send-off to force a 1-all draw with the Central Coast.

Damien Brown put the Coasties ahead in the 19th minute. However, prolific goalscorer Steve Karavatakis had the Eagles on level terms within a minute.

In the other game played, Bankstown City was held to a 0-0 draw by Canterbury-Marrickville at Jensen Park.

BANKSTOWN CITY MIDFIELDER MILE TODOROSKI BREAKS HIS CANTERBURY OPPONENT

On the Road to the Title

SYDNEY UNITED vs BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS

Sydney United had a Easter weekend free of football after their game against Sutherland was called off and a bye in Round Three. This will probably have not done the young side any good at all who need to play games together if they are to get any rhythm and flow into their play. Do have a solitary point from their opening game and are hoping to get a few more before they get the boost from their players from the National Youth League squad in about four weeks time. Bankstown have had a slow start to 1997 but were able to come away from the Easter weekend with a point from each game. Failed to capitalise on a man short Bonnyrigg and despite some good play against Canterbury they were unable to score which has been their major problem.

RECORD: These two have never met in competition before.

CONCLUSION: Lack of match practice will prove costly for United as Bankstown should go onto to win their first match of the season.

BONNYRIGG WHITE EAGLES vs CENTRAL COAST

This is pretty much a must win game for both sides as they try to move up the table. While it still early on neither can afford to let other teams skip away and a win will lift confidence as well. The Eagles although only picking up one point from their two games on the weekend, showed plenty of character in difficult circumstances. Were a player short for most of the game against Bankstown and held on for a draw, while they fell to a stronger Blacktown on Monday but were dangerous nonetheless and could have fared much better than the 3-1 result. The Coasties had a tough run over the Easter with firstly Blacktown and then Parramatta arguably the two favourites this year. Struck Demons skipper Steve Berry in form and lost 4-2 and were unable to take advantage of Parramatta being a man down for three quarters of the match to draw 1-1. At least they picked up their first point which is some consolation.

Matthew Heighway's influence has been sorely missed up front for the Coasties.

RECORD: Have met just the once at the Serbian Centre with Bonnyrigg winning 2-0 last season.

CONCLUSION: Both sides play right to the whistle and never give up even when down so it should be a good game for the supporters. Evenly matched but at home you would have to fancy the Eagles.

MACARTHUR RAMS vs SUTHERLAND SHARKS

This is promising to be a titanic match with a great deal of significance for Sutherland. Macarthur had a mixed bag over the weekend but showed enough to suggest that they just might be a final five contender. Lost narrowly to the highly rated Parramatta outfit on Saturday night but hit back to record a good win over St. George on Monday. A more compact defence has certainly given the side more confidence and David Reid has impressed many observers with his play in central midfield. The Sharks have started the season proper off in very ordinary circumstances. A drab 0-0 draw with Canterbury was followed by Friday's call off of their game with Sydney United. But they then lost at home to previously winless Leichhardt Tigers on Sunday to leave them sitting one from bottom. Plus the loss of David Thomas for what looks like a year after snapping his Achilles tendon against Leichhardt will surely weaken the midfield. While this is only early days at the moment, it is surely not the start they were looking for after such a good pre-season.

MACARTHUR'S SCOTT HOUGHTON HAS MADE A BIG DIFFERENCE TO THEIR DEFENCE

RECORD: Honours are all square in their meetings at Lynwood Park. One win each both by a 1-0 margin.

CONCLUSION: On current form Macarthur would certainly start favourites but Sutherland are always strong when a challenge is put up too them. The injury to Versi has certainly affected the Sharks and if he can get back on the park they will be more potent in attack. A close game is expected.

PARRAMATTA EAGLES vs ST GEORGE SAINTS

Is an interesting match up because the Eagles have been hit by a few injury problems and St. George has started the season off in encouraging style. The Eagles still remain undefeated but have run into a mini injury crisis. Stephane Jee, Christian Ortiz, Scott Gilbert and Saso Petrovski all missed the Coasties match while Geoff Gunning played with a foot injury. But they have the most dynamic player of the competition at the moment and while Steve Karavatakis continues to bang in the goals they will always be a threat. Have also signed George Haniotis to further strengthen the squad. St. George had a good win over Leichhardt on Friday but lost out in bizarre circumstances to Macarthur on Monday. Frank Lang has a very useful side which will only improve provided they have a good run with injuries. Lost Michael Grbevski to a hamstring injury which is a big blow.

RECORD: Have met six times at Melita, with the Eagles successful only once while the Saints have won twice. The Eagles only win was last season by 2-0, while St. George last won at Melita way back in 1970.

CONCLUSION: Karavatakis will be especially keen to keep adding to recent goalscoring run as it is against his old club. With Petrovski expected back and Ortiz a 50/50, the Eagles should win and win well at home.

CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE vs BLACKTOWN CITY DEMONS

The Berries will be running onto their new home ground Henson Park for the first time in this match. They will be hoping that the new ground will also provide them with a first up season win after drawing their first two games 0-0. At least coach John Xipolitas has his defence working well together which was looking a little shaky in the pre-season. All that they need to do now is find some way of putting the ball in the back of the net. The same cannot be said for Blacktown who have scored 10 goals in the first three games. Five of those have come from Ivo De Jesus, including a hat-trick on Monday against Bonnyrigg. Steve Berry also was in the goals with three against the Coasties and so far the Demons have looked a side that will take some beating this season.

RECORD: Have met 13 times at Canterbury's home ground. The Berries have won only two matches the last was a 4-0 victory in 1994, while Blacktown has won six times including the last two.

CONCLUSION: Canterbury will have their hands full in this game but Xipolitas is confident they will give them a good run for their money. For me the Demons are in top form and should win comfortably.

Last Weeks Matches

TOTARO TAMES TIGERS

Daniel Totaro came off the substitutes bench and scored the winning goal as the St. George Saints held onto win 2-1 against Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park.

"WITH SCORES LOCKED AT 1-1, TOTARO FINISHED CLINICALLY WITH TEN MINUTES REMAINING TO EARN THE SAINTS A SURPRISE VICTORY"

With scores locked at 1-1, Totaro finished clinically with ten minutes remaining to earn the Saints a surprise victory.

After a fairly scrappy opening the game came too life with two quick goals. First to score was St. George in the 17th minute when Leon Dauzacker pounced on a bad pass by ex-Saint Blago Milicevic, setting Grbevski towards goal who made no mistake with a perfectly placed shot past Frank Mikuletic.

However two minutes later the Tigers were on level terms from a terrific set move. Martin Driene's corner was flicked on by Jeremy Pettenon at the near post and Tom Bazdaric had a simple header from a metre out to score.

Leichhardt continued to press but were limited to long shots at goal, the closest coming from Driene's 35 yard drive which clipped the top of the crossbar.

St. George could have taken the lead right on halftime when Stephen Scotti was set free down the left but his shot slid across the face of goal.

Shortly after the break, Grbevski made a surging run forward but had to pull up clutching his hamstring and to be replaced by Totaro. Grbevski could be sidelined for at least four weeks.

Midway through the half, St. George lifted the tempo with Totaro missing a good opportunity after yet another mistake by the Leichhardt defence, while Daniel Cummins was pulled down inches outside the box by Milicevic.

They duly took the lead in the 80th minute, when Dauzacker dispossessed Macolino, James Magiasis picking up the ball and setting Totaro on a free run towards goal and he placed his shot over the advancing Mikuletic.

Saints coach Frank Lang was extremely pleased after the match, saying: "we were very patient today and the goals were just reward for a committed team performance.

It's a funny game, last week we should have scored eight and got none, this week we had only about five good chances and got two."

Leichhardt: Mikuletic, Talcevski, Driene (Blinoff), Milicevic, Pettenon, Macolino, Bourke, Williams (Telisman), Buonavoglia, Ianni, Bazdaric.

St. George: Bello-Amigo, O'Shea, Scotti (Martinez), Carter, Treharne, Pillemer, Cummins, Dauzacker, Savoca, Magiasis, Grbevski (Totaro).

COASTIES BURIED BY BERRY

Central Coast came to the Gabbie Stadium confident of getting a point from this match but were buried by Blacktown City Demons inspirational skipper Steve Berry.

Berry took all the glory in his sides 4-2 victory scoring a hat-trick but they will also have keeper Fernando Greco to thank with some crucial saves in the first half.

Greco's first half performance was outstanding and the Demons capitalised with a superb second half which at one stage saw them lead 4-0 after 68 minutes.

The Coasties applied the early pressure but could find no way past Greco while the Demons responded with Dean Harding denied by a good save from Shane Woodhouse.

In the 35th minute though, Berry opened his account with a terrific shot from the right side of the box after good lead up work by Harding and De Jesus.

Shortly after, Greco's made his impact on the game produced superb saves to deny firstly Nathan Byrn and then Paul Roberts as they both looked certain to score.

The game swung further the Demons way a minute after halftime, Berry pouncing on the loose ball from a corner by Harding.

The skipper was the instigator of the Demons third, putting Harding clear and his cutback was finished off by a good low shot by Jay Anderson.

The Coasties tried in earnest to get back into the game with Greco saving from Matthew Lowe, Byrn's flicked shot going just wide and Damien Brown shooting against the bar.

However it was the Demons who scored next when Anderson put Berry through and he made no mistake for a well deserved hat-trick.

With the game seemingly safe, Jeff Suzor was brought into the fray but five minutes later found himself taking an early shower after being sent from the field for retaliation.

The Coasties lifted the tempo, Brown denied point blank by Greco before they finally broke through scoring twice in a minute, firstly through Moss's brilliant diving header and then Drysdale hitting a good shot past Greco from outside the area.

Blacktown: Greco, Doyle, Hickman, Langan (Vulic), Foxe, Ashton, De Jesus (Boudaher), Berry, Cleary, Harding (Suzor R/C), Anderson.

Coasties: Woodhouse, Moss, Lovie, Drysdale, Lowe, Brown, Preston (Clark), Thompson, Byrn, Knight, Roberts.

PHIL MOSS SCORED A GREAT GOAL FOR THE COASTIES

BONNYRIGG HOLD LIONS AT BAY

Bonnyrigg White Eagles survived for almost 75 minutes with only 10 men to earn a tremendous 1-1 draw with Bankstown City Lions at the Serbian Centre

The draw was further illustration that Bonnyrigg will be a hard team to beat in 1997 after impressing in the pre-season.

Ray Duricic's dismissal in the 10th minute of the game, put the home side under enormous pressure but were kept in the game by some good goalkeeping by the experienced Mike Gibson.

Bonnyrigg were rewarded for their tireless effort with a goal in the 70th minute to Daniel Crowden who slammed home from 10 metres after racing onto a great pass from Javier Mancino.

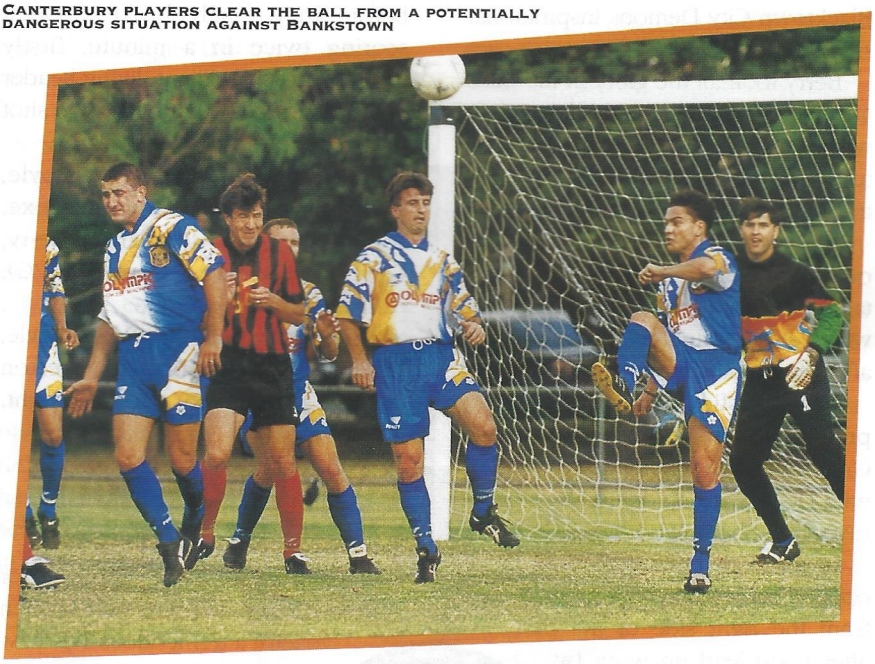
Bankstown however fought back hard and finally got the equaliser in the 83rd minute, Robert Gomez quickest to react to a loose ball from a scrimmage in front of the Eagles goalmouth.

Bankstown were also reduced to 10 men a few minutes later with Tony Josevski getting his marching orders.

Bonnyrigg: Gibson, Agius, Petrovic, Stajcic, Richardson, Gajic, Mancino, Ninkovic (Janic), Maiorca, Crowden, Duricic (R/C).

Bankstown: Kostadinovski,

CANTERBURY PLAYERS CLEAR THE BALL FROM A POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS SITUATION AGAINST BANKSTOWN



Josevski, Boskovski, Ralevski, Gomez, Eagleton, Todoroski, Velevski, Zafirov, Luksic, Younis.

KARAVATAKIS GRABS WINNER

Steve Karavatakis stole the limelight once again with a late winner in Parramatta Eagles 1-0 win over Macarthur Rams at Lynwood Park.

In what was a very even tussle right throughout, Karavatakis picked the right time to notch his 12th goal this year with only five minutes to go. He raced onto a low hard cross by Malcolm Meilak to the far post to crash his shot past David Hayes.

TIGERS MAUL THE SHARKS

Leichhardt Tigers put the disappointment of Friday's loss to St. George behind them with a thoroughly convincing 2-0 win over the Sutherland Sharks at Seymour Shaw Park.

The victory for the Tigers was a pleasant return to form with goals coming in each half. John Buonavoglia scored the first after 18 minutes and Sasha Telisman scoring from the penalty spot in the 76th minute.

Sutherland: P Henderson, Donnelly, Lerond, S Henderson, Cabassi, Clinch, Thomas (Pillay), Bard, Christodoulou, Porter (Versi), Moszny.

Leichhardt: Mikuletic, Milicevic, Pettenon, Macolino, Bourke, Williams, Buonavoglia, Telisman, Cklamovski (Driene), Bazdaric, Shipley.

HAYWARD NETS BIZARRE WINNER

Macarthur Rams Warren Hayward netted a bizarre winner direct from a corner kick to give his side a 2-1 victory over St. George at St. George Stadium.

John Pillemer gave the Saints a 14th minute lead however the Rams struck back right on halftime through David Reid. Hayward used the wind superbly to see his shot float inside the far post and leave the Rams just off the competition leaders.

"THE WIN IS IN STARK CONTRAST TO LAST SEASON WHICH SAW THEM LOSE THEIR FIRST TEN GAMES OF THE SEASON"

EAGLES HOLD ON FOR DRAW

Parramatta Eagles shrugged off the 22nd minute send off of Mauricio Islas to hold Central Coast to a 1-1 draw at Pluim Park.

Damien Brown put the Coasties in the lead in the 19th minute only to see Steve Karavatakis score almost straight from the kick off to equalise for the Eagles. Islas's send off should have been the catalysed for Central Coast to go on and win but were held out by the Eagles determined defence.

Central Coast: Woodhouse, Moss, Lovie, Drysdale, Lowe, Brown, Preston, Thompson, Byrn, Knight, Roberts.

Parramatta: Holmes, Souris, Reveley, Huxley, Danaskos, Harding, Utjesenovic, Haniotis (Meilak), Islas (R/C), Gunning, Karavatakis.

WINDS PLAY HAVOC AT JENSEN

Strong winds played havoc with the players at Jensen Park, with neither Bankstown City and Canterbury Marrickville able to trouble the scoreboard.

Neither side was able to control the ball as they tried to adapt to the blustery conditions and in the end a draw was a fair result.

Bankstown: Kostadinovski, Boskovski (Testore), Ralevski, Gomez, Eagleton, Todoroski (Orlando), Velevski, Zafirov (Lozevski), Van Bentum, Luksic, Younis

Canterbury: Tolios, M Raeburn, Hantzis, Shepherd, Mendes, Paradisis, Christoforidis, Nikas, Manolopoulos, Georgallis, Markopoulos (Hall)

DE JESUS NETS HAT-TRICK

Ivo De Jesus netted a hat-trick for Blacktown City as they went onto beat Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3-1 at the Gabbie Stadium.

The young midfielder has scored five goals in the last three games as the Demons marched to sole leadership of the Super League table. Bonnyrigg made a late comeback with Robert Sacco scoring in the 88th minute.

Blacktown: Greco, Doyle, Hickman, Langan, Foxe, Ashton, De Jesus, Berry, Cleary (Vulic), Harding

Teenage

SUPER YOUTH

The big Easter weekend did certainly sort out some of the teams with Sydney Olympic and Parramatta Eagles clearing away from the remainder of the field. They look as though they will fight it for overall Youth League Champion even at this early stage unless something drastic happens.

Olympic are three points ahead of the Eagles on the combined table but have played an extra four matches. They have moved well away from Southern Districts in third spot with Blacktown being the biggest movers of the weekend picking up 21 points from a possible 24 to move to fourth spot. Marconi were unable to repeat the good form of Saturday against Sydney United, losing three out four matches against Parramatta on Monday to drop to sixth behind Wollongong who continue to progress speedily.

The Under 13's sees Sydney Olympic hold a three point lead after securing easy victories over Southern Districts and Sydney United. Sutherland's loss to close challengers Gladesville saw them slip to outright second, with Districts and Gladesville a point back.

Only three teams were able to win on both days, Olympic, Adamstown and Marconi. For both Adamstown and Marconi it was their first wins in the competition.

Most other teams had a mixed bag with a win and a loss, emphasising that there is not a lot of difference between the teams.

Parramatta Eagles suffered their first defeat in the Under 14's but still remain at the head of the table. They fell 2-0 to a very good performance by Gladesville which was their first win. The Gladesville side backed this up with a 2-0 win over Sutherland on Monday.

The Eagles are a point in front of Olympic who trounced Southern Districts with five goals on Saturday but had to settle for a draw with Sydney United on Monday. The 14's is still a very tight table with eight teams separated by only three points from third to tenth.

Blacktown moved to third spot with two comfortable wins over Sutherland and Illawarra. Southern Districts recovered from the thrashing against Olympic to get their first points of the season with a 4-0 whitewash of Wollongong.

Other winners were Macarthur over Central Coast, while Illawarra accounted for Warringah.

Anyone of ten teams looks to be in with a show in the Under 15's. Southern Districts has moved to sole leadership with five wins from five games but it is the teams that follow which is why this competition is so open. Nine teams have already reached double figure points, while Gladesville is just outside after recording the biggest win of the weekend 10-1 over Sutherland and holding Parramatta to a 2-2 draw.

Districts showed their true potential against worthy opposition, winning both weekend matches 2-1. They are three points ahead of Blacktown and the Central Coast. The Demons won both of their matches, while the Coast lost in a shock to Macarthur on Monday.

The previously undefeated Wollongong City were held to a draw by Macarthur and then lost to Districts in a close one.

Warringah scored two 1-0 victories on the weekend to move to 10 points.

The Easter weekend proved a disaster for equal leader in the 16's Southern Districts, losing both matches to slip six points behind co-leader Parramatta Eagles.

Heavy defeats to Sydney Olympic 3-0 and 4-1 to Wollongong City allowed those two sides to move ahead of them in the standing's. Olympic and the Wolves won their two matches on the weekend.

However it is Parramatta who still lead the standing's and have won all five matches they have played. They proved too strong for Gladesville and then made short work of Marconi in what was expected to be a much closer tussle.

Blacktown moved themselves up the standing's with two 1-0 victories. Other winners were Adamstown 4-2 over Central Coast on Saturday while the Coasties struck back to beat Macarthur 2-1 on Monday.

THIS WEEKS DRAW

The players and officials will be glad to get back to the rigours of only one fixture this weekend with a number of interesting ties.

Easily the best match up of Round Six is between Sydney Olympic and Wollongong City. The Wolves are currently fifth on the combined table but have surged in the last couple of weeks and will be out to continue that good run. Olympic will probably have their measure in the 13's and 14's but nothing separates them in the 15's and 16's.

Blacktown should pick up more points up in Adamstown, while the normally close rivalry shared by Parramatta and Sydney United will more than likely see the Eagles take maximum points. Gladesville should come away with a few points from Illawarra and Sutherland face a tough ask against Marconi but should win the 13's.

Macarthur have been a bit unlucky this year having played a lot of the top teams in the opening rounds but should pick up one or two at Warringah's expense, while Southern District will be too strong for the Central Coast. The clash in the 15's will be a highlight with both teams near the top of the table.

DIVISION ONE

I said it last week and it was confirmed again over the Easter weekend, that Leichhardt looks the only team capable of taking out the Division One Championship. They are eight points ahead of Southern Branch who have played eight more games than the Tigers.

Their tussle on the Monday down in Nowra was a close affair as they shared the points but if Southern were to be a threat to the Tigers they needed to get more than the one win.

Most other teams had mixed results on the weekend which has left the Tigers to clear away with games in hand. Eastern Suburbs are third on the combined table a point behind Southern and have four more games than the Tigers.

St. George look as though they could give the Tigers a fight but they lack that winning consistency of the Tigers against the lesser lights.

CSI Schofields moved up the table after picking up a handy 15 points including 9 against Rockdale. Penrith obviously found the Tigers in white hot form and were unable to pick a point on Saturday but recovered to pick up seven in the derby with Blacktown Association.

Southern Branch stay in front of the Under 13's but were held to two draws on the weekend. Were surprised by Granville on Saturday but played an exciting draw with Leichhardt on Monday who are their nearest challengers.

Eastern Suburbs and Bankstown Association are close behind and played out 2-2 draw on Saturday before both recorded comfortable wins on the Monday. Ku-Ring-Gai and Granville Associations moved themselves away from the bottom of the table with two hard fought draws each and just goes to show that the fight for semi-finals berths will be close this season.

The Under 14 did not take a different shape over Easter with Leichhardt, Eastern Suburbs and AC United continuing out in front. The Tigers and AC have won all five matches they have played while Eastern Suburbs has played one more match for one loss.

Leichhardt were in scintillating form on Saturday trouncing Penrith by eight goals and completed a good weekend with a 3-0 victory over Southern. AC were also impressive in disposing of Nepean 3-1 and Granville 4-0, while Eastern did likewise with Bankstown 4-2 and CSI 4-1.

St. George also looks to be a threat and have only lost one game to be just three points behind. They were too strong for the winless Ku-Ring-Gai on Saturday winning 5-0 and beating arch rival Rockdale 2-1 on Monday.

Granville recorded their first win of the season with a 2-1 victory over Southern Branch, while Blacktown Association picked two wins to move up the table.

The 15's are still very evenly spread with six teams separated by only three points at the top of the table. Blacktown Association remain unbeaten and are on top with 13 points, finishing the weekend with a narrow win over Bonnyrigg and playing out a 2-2 draw with one of their nearest rivals Penrith.

Just behind Blacktown are AC United and St. George who both had two wins. AC especially was very impressive over the weekend with a 3-1 victory over Nepean and then winning 7-1 over Granville. St. George beat Ku-Ring-Gai 2-0 and then Rockdale 2-1.

Southern Branch also won their two games inflicting the only defeat on Leichhardt with an exciting 3-2 win on Monday. Bankstown also are close behind winning against Nepean and fighting a 2-2 draw with Eastern Suburbs.

One of the most exciting matches of the weekend was between Bonnyrigg and Ku-Ring-Gai which finished 6-4 in the Eagles favour.

> "THE 15'S IS STILL VERY EVENLY SPREAD WITH SIX TEAMS SEPARATED BY ONLY THREE POINTS AT THE TOP OF THE TABLE."

The 16's still sees Southern Branch out in front ahead of Leichhardt Tigers. After recording wins on Saturday, their clash was expected to be close on Monday and in the end it finished at one apiece.

Bonnyrigg recorded the biggest win over the Easter break beating Ku-Ring-Gai 8-0 plus victory over Blacktown saw them move to fourth.

CSI Schofields recorded two victories including an important 2-1 result over Eastern Suburbs who were level on points with them going into the game.

THIS WEEKS DRAW

This weekend brings up some interesting clashes with Leichhardt against AC United the pick. AC will give the Tigers a good fight and will take a few points off the Tigers. Eastern Suburbs clash with Rockdale should also have plenty of good football with Eastern needing to get good points here to show that they are going to challenge Leichhardt.

DIVISION TWO

There were no games in Division Two last weekend but they resume battle this weekend.

Stanmore Hawks will be out to continue their impressive start to the season which has seen them win eight from eight but will face a tough Mt. Druitt Town who are in the chasing pack. Second placed St. Johns Park face neighbours Mt. Pritchard in another interesting tie, while third place Canterbury Association should have too many big guns for Macquarie Sports.

Hawkesbury and Hills both level on points at the bottom play off to see who can move away from that position, while Springwood host Parramatta City to see who can move away from the bottom spot as well.

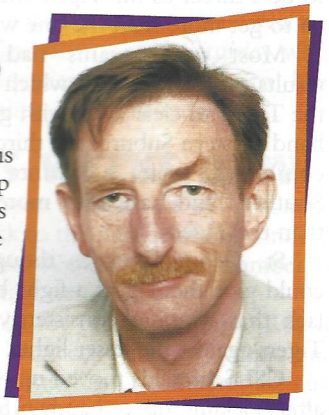
First Division Weekend Review

PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS

WESTS FIND DOLPHINS TOO STRONG



New signing Shamus Hayes proved a trump card for wily Dolphins coach Agenor Muniz when the locals grabbed a handy 3-0 win over West Wanderers at Cromer Park on Good Friday.

Back to full strength with defenders Kelvin Foster and Danny Barbalace back in the side Warringah added to their depth when they signed Hayes from UTS Olympic before the game.

Hayes is from the District and played there in the past and was very pleased to mark his return with two fine goals.

He got the first on the quarter hour after Vic Masi played a ball in between two Wests' defenders, leaving Hayes to do the rest with a tidy finish after winning the initial challenge well.

Wests played some good football, but were out of luck when Hayes got a second in the 85th. His finish from a Robert Booy pass was clinical and Booy rounded things off four minutes later with a good shot from a ball provided by the inspirational Barbalace.

GREYSTANES FALL TO FIVE FROM PENRITH

Penrith outplayed Greystanes on another warm day at Melita Stadium with 18 year old Brett Buckpitt on target from the penalty spot in each half and David Fitzharris getting an important goal early in the second half with a cracking drive from 25 yards with his unrecognised right foot.

Buckpitt, son of the former Parramatta rugby league player Tony, showed composure in stepping forward when senior players seemed reluctant to convert spot kicks after first Fitzharris and then Richard Astone had been brought down.

Penrith had Rowan Healy sent off in the 20th minute, a decision which Panthers coach Stan Ackerley would not dispute as the players were warned about their language before the game. Greystanes played hard and well, but Penrith took their chances, Bennett an opportunist goal and Astone challenging the keeper and stabbing the loose ball home when it fell at his feet.

ROCKDALE FIRST TEAM

The sun certainly shone on the Suns at Rockdale on Good Friday, but it was another of the elements, the stiff breeze off Botany Bay, which seemed to be the biggest influence on the game.

Ryde failed to contend with the variables presented by this factor, frequently underhitting their passes at the back and leaving themselves vulnerable.

As the game wore on Ryde became frustrated and the home side began to sniff out the chances more and more.

An error at the back in the 84th minute led to Grant McDonald gaining possession and feeding the ball to import Spase Najdovski, who fired in a shot which Andrew Prentice could not hold onto, the loose ball being put away at the second attempt.

Jim Boudaher was one of three substitutes Ryde threw on late in the game and it was this hard running player who rattled the left upright from 30 yards to almost steal the game in the 68th minute.

Still pressing hard after going behind Ryde were caught out when McDonald nodded in at the near post from a cross from the right by Mahmoud Saab to give Rockdale a sensational 2-0 win.

BATHURST HIT BY AUBURN

More was expected of Bathurst when they tackled the in and out Auburn side in the west and the 4-2 home defeat must have surprised many.

Auburn's lively attack can take some containing as Bathurst found to their cost as Ante Krezo opened the scoring from a strong free kick and Unal Ogmen added a second early in the second period after Shaun Dixon had made a quick reply to Krezo's strike.

Aydin Cetinay with a header and Huseyin Beyhan a penalty added two more with Scott Mutton getting a late goal for the home side who seemed unable to cope with the unpredictable visitors.

BELMORE COLLAPSE

Fairfield returned to Nineveh Field and recorded their first win in weeks when they beat the disappointing Belmore 3-1.

Though Belmore opened the scoring in the 9th minute through Nathan Liebermann, Rick Giometti got the home side level from a free header after a corner and further individual goals from Giometti and Sasha Talevski sent Belmore home disappointed.

MOUNTIES ESCAPE

Hills took a while to get into their stride against the resilient Mount Pritchard at Fred Caterson with Darren Iocca getting his latest side off to a good 30th minute start.

Adam Hagger brought the expected howls of protest when his 68th minute free kick was taken while Mounties' keeper Dragan Pupovac was still setting up his defensive wall. Noticing the keeper guarding one side of goal and with the free kick signal giving the go-ahead Hagger coolly planted the ball in the other top corner for a pleasing equaliser.

Lawrie McKinna came off the bench and almost grabbed the winner with a late shot which Pupovac saved splendidly.

Hills also felt that a penalty should have been awarded when Bob Casserley was brought down in the area and the ball ran away for a corner. The man who made the tackle, Vladan Radic, was sent off for disputing the decision to give the flag kick, with Hills' players claimed a foul had been committed anyway and that Mounties had got off lightly.

EASTS DUEL WITH STANMORE

The expected tight tussle between these two useful sides eventuated at Wentworth Park, but Stanmore left it late to share the spoils.

Con Anagnastopoulos, so often a substitute who scores vital goals, did the trick again for his coach with some smart finishing from a Michael Lardis pass. With his back to goal the man they all call 'Alpha' swivelled around and fell as he executed the goalbound shot in the 88th minute.

Easts' goal had come in the 52nd from a typical Gary Spivac run down the left and a good piece of work on two bemused defenders which led to a tidy finish.

It was a game of few chances with Phil Cacciola starring for Stanmore in the first half until Spivac got his measure and Grant Lee controlling things for the home side aided by another strong showing from Mick Daniels alongside him in midfield.

ILLAWARRA LATEST TO FALL

They fought hard all the way but Illawarra Lions just failed to keep Minotaurs out when a push on Tom Pontidas led to a penalty which Louis Dounis converted in the 51st minute.

Dario Fernandez could have earned another spot kick when brought down in even more glaring fashion later on, but this time the referee thought otherwise.

Minotaurs lost Ricky Somboli to another red card, but more significantly Tony Mihaljevic left the field early with a pulled hamstring and that could be a real blow to the Hurstville side.

SUNDAY'S ROUND-UP

Celebrations were in order on Sunday for the bottom placed club Illawarra Lions who picked up their first win on their travels when they beat the out of touch Ryde City at T G Millner Field.

There were no Easter gifts for Ryde who lost to Rockdale 2-0 on Good Friday, but the win was a nice present for Illawarra skipper Chris Jankulovski who turned 21 the same day. The Lions were jubilant, apart from one disgruntled substitute who felt that he had made the long trip from the South Coast in vain, as he didn't get a run from the bench.

Highly ranked coach Ljube Jancev soon put him in his place, as it was a superb team effort by a very young side which tackled tenaciously throughout and made the most of an exceptional goal in the 9th minute.

Midfielder Steve Nickolovski punted the ball forward towards goal from deep inside his own half along the touchline catching Gunners' keeper Andrew Prentice out of his goal and unable to back track quickly enough to stop the ball bouncing over the line.

Ryde threw everything at the Lions in the second half, Andy Stratford having hit the bar at the end of the first, but the Lions held firm, with Cane Despotovski majestic in midfield.

Two late breaks saw Robert Trajcevski and Darko Delovski joining forces to converge on the Ryde goal, with identical moves. The first saw Delovski put the ball wide in the 86th, but a minute later Delovski got his side's second to rapturous applause, with a much more accomplished finish to Trajcevski's pass.

Meanwhile, elsewhere, Hurstville Minotaurs secured a 1-0 win over Warringah, with the inevitable Louis Dounis grabbing the all important winner at Cromer Park.

The young Dolphins ran hard all day, but the supreme finishing ability of Dounis was to the fore once more when he latched onto a loose ball headed out by the Warringah defence, chesting down and volleying in the 44th minute.

Dounis should have gone around the keeper in the dying stages to make it two, but elected to lob and the save was made instead. George Zabetakis, George Kalogeras and Peter Papoythis all had strong games for the Minotaurs who now have appear to have a stranglehold on the premiership trophy after ten rounds have been completed.

Stanmore fell to Hills United 2-0 at Arlington, which was a surprise, goals from Shane Coombes and substitute Bernie Voloder getting them the points, while Easts could do no better than draw 1-1 with West Wanderers at Hajduk Stadium.

There were also celebrations for Bathurst who bounced back from the previous day's disappointment to win 4-0 at Penrith.

Scott Mutton's powerful header from a free kick by Adrian Renike in the 33rd minute was enough to keep it close until Danny Hinton hit the post for Penrith in the second half.

But a stream of goals by firstly Mark Rooke, who got two and also hit the post with a header and Tony Judge, who also missed a penalty saw Bathurst surge home.

Fairfield Bulls won their second in three days this time 2-1 over Auburn.

Auburn began smartly with some lightning fast moves one of which led to the first goal by Hulusi Orhan in the 28th minute.

Rick Giometti was troubling Auburn with his sleight of foot and was brought down in the 38th earning a penalty, which Sasha Talevski converted.

Nabil Codmani claimed the winner as he finished off an Ian Stoddart-Jamie Nunez move with a sharp touch inside the six yard area in the 78th. It was a game of high quality for all spectators

Mount Pritchard helped themselves to a 3-0 win over Greystanes to get back among the leaders.

An Ante Zizic goal just before half time and second half goals from Greg Baldock and Boban Ivastanin were enough to see Mounties hold onto fourth spot on the ladder.

ROUND ELEVEN PREVIEW

There are several top clashes this weekend, the unbeaten Eastern Suburbs meeting the crack Minotaurs outfit at Wentworth Park, where old Cosmos team-mates Louis Dounis, Peter Papoythis and George Kalogeras meet up with many old friends in the current Easts team. This looks a cliff hanger, Easts could just get home.

At Cromer Park Ryde City face Warringah Dolphins the side they knocked out of the Waratah Cup a couple of years back in an epic game. Dolphins have home advantage in this derby game and it could help them to gain at least a point.

Mount Pritchard and Stanmore is a top fixture which looks like going down to the wire. It is fancied that the Mounties' defence might hold the aces here.

Fairfield Bulls take on Penrith looking for another win and it will be hard fought if they can get it against the hard working Panthers outfit.

Bathurst sees Greystanes for the first time, other than in a trial a few years ago, in a match which looks like being a real ninety minute affair.

Hills can beat West Wanderers at Fred Caterson with any luck, while Rockdale should prove good enough to beat Auburn at home and Illawarra Lions may prove capable of holding Belmore back at their Kembla Grange HQ.

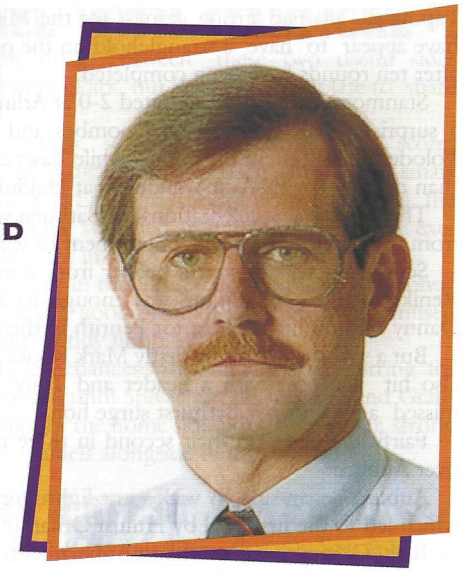
The National League

PETER KOGOY LOOKS AT THE GAMES AROUND THE COUNTRY.



David Zdrilic scored a last gasp winner for an unimpressive Sydney United to secure a 3-2 victory over Ericsson Cup flop Collingwood in front of a paltry crowd at Olympic Park.

Zdrilic's 88th minute strike took his season's tally to 21, 10 shy of Damien Mori's all-time league record.

With Ante Milicic getting on the scoresheet early in the second half, the Pumas' striker force have now combined to score 37 of the side's 63 goals with three matches to play.

The Warriors were forced to move the fixture to Olympic Park after losing the backing of AFL club Collingwood and only about 1700 fans turned out to see them take on championship bound United.

United coach Branko Culina however said his side had received the bonus of not only snatching the full points but were now also the highest scorers in the history of the league.

"We've scored the most goals in the history of the NSL with 63 beating the record set by Marconi in 1969," he said.

The Collingwood players were playing for professional pride and the hope that they would impress enough to secure contracts with other clubs next season.

United started cockily by teasing the Warriors, who did not re-apply to join the league next season, but the visitors paid the penalty for the early arrogance.

Frank Catalano slipped the ball through to Peter Di Irio who side-footed home to give the Warriors the lead with 17 minutes played.

United came back strongly with Frank Juric producing a point blank save to deny a Zdrilic header from levelling.

The visitors clawed back some ground, but the Warriors were back in numbers and giving little away.

Robert Enes hit a curling shot into the top corner to equalise after 28 minutes and the game was wide open again.

The Warriors might be doomed to oblivion but they gave United the fright of their lives when Andy Vlahos picked his spot with a pinpoint shot after latching onto a Con Boutsianis cross.

The Warriors were ahead again and packed their penalty area to hold onto the lead.

But United was swarming forward in numbers and Aytec Genc headed onto the crossbar, but Ante Milicic was on hand to tuck the rebound home making it 2-2 after 68 minutes.

The league's top scorer Zdrilic struck sweetly in the final minute of the game to steal a victory and keep United on track for the minor premiership.

Culina said after the game that he would have been happy to have settled for a draw.

"It's good to play badly and win for a change," he said.

He said it was always going to be difficult to come from behind against the Warriors as they were well tutored by coach Zoran Matic in defending a lead.

"They scored an early goal and pulled everyone back and we had to be patient, that's what we said at half-time, we had to be patient and not force the issue," he said.

"We had to be patient because Zoran's team was never going to give us space to play in."

UNITED COACH BRANKO BULINA

The victory puts United eight points ahead of the pack, but the visitors looked worried for much of the game and a lot less comfortable than in their 7-0 win over the Warriors earlier in the season.

Brisbane Strikers maintained the pressure for the double chance second place in the Ericsson Cup with a revenge 2-0 win over Perth Glory in Perth.

But player-coach Frank Farina questioned his players' pride despite the impressive display which was a far cry from the round nine disaster at Suncorp Stadium when the Glory humbled the Strikers 5-1.

Perth coach Gary Marocchi was baffled by his side's performance in front of 12,858 fans.

"It was damaging," he said.

"I wanted to see a repeat of the last home performance and I can't put my finger on why two weeks ago we ran the top club in the country ragged, and today didn't have any legs."

1-0 over Marconi, Adelaide City has a similar 1-0 scoreline against the Canberra Cosmos, and Frank Arok's Gippsland Falcons defeated John Kosmina's Newcastle Breakers 3-0.

Skipper Paul Trimboli needed all his Socceroo experience to lift South Melbourne against UTS Olympic at Belmore Sports Ground.

David Mitchell's Olympic, battling for a place in the semi finals, took an early 1-0 lead 60 seconds from halftime from a Scott Baillie header, but failed to cope with a second half onslaught from the Lakers.

The street-smart Trimboli took control of the match in midfield. a penalty from Steve Panopoulos and a strike from Kiwi international Vaughan Coveny sealed Olympic's fate.

West Adelaide kept their finals hopes alive and ended Wollongong's hopes with an emphatic 3-1 win at Hindmarsh Stadium.

The Sharks got on the scoresheet through Pablo Cardozo, Hamilton Thorp and Jim Tsekenis in the 67th minute, after Anthony Surjan had put the Wolves up in the ninth minute.

Adelaide City's Dino Mennillo returned from a two match suspension to grab an 83rd minute winner against the hapless Canberra Cosmos at the Bruce Stadium.

Adrian Cervinski scored his 10th goal of the season to give the Melbourne Knights an unlikely win at Bossley Park.

Marconi, for the second week in a row, had a player sent off, with Robert Stanton automatically ruled out of his team's Round 24 encounter against the Newcastle Breakers.

Former Sydney United player Tony Sekulic's hat-trick earned Frank Arok and the Gippsland Falcons a deserved 3-0 against the Newcastle Breakers.

Only a goal difference separates Gippsland from climbing above Newcastle on the league ladder.

Former Sydney United goalkeeper Peter Blazincic has made a strong start in his new career in China, beginning the season with three shut-outs.

> "I THOUGHT WE HAD THE BEST OF THE CHANCES AND DESERVED TO WIN NOT JUST DRAW."

Blazincic, who is on loan from the Pumas to Guangzhou Apollo in the Chinese National League, started the season on a winning note as his side downed soccer neighbour Guangdong Hongyuan 1-0.

Since then he's played a part in scoreless draws with Shandong Taishan and August First which have left Apollo in sixth place on the 12-team table, four points behind leader Dalian.

Blazincic, the only Australian in the burgeoning Chinese professional league, had earned high praise from his coach Chen Yiming, the People's Daily newspaper reported.

"I hope Peter can keep his perfect record going as long as possible," Chen said.

FORMER SOCCEROO GREG BROWN HAS BEEN APPOINTED NATIONAL COACH TO LEAD THE MATILDAS TO THE 1999 WORLD CUP AND THE SYDNEY 2000 OLYMPIC GAMES. JANENE MAR REPORTS.

Brown's appointment comes four months after the news of Tom Sermanni's departure to join Eddie Thomson in the J-League.

"Obviously I'm honoured," said Brown, who took charge of the Australian team alongside fellow assistant Jeff Olver for the recent Ram Sports Cup against Olympic champions USA.

"There was a lot of interest from some very high profile coaches."

Contracted to the end of 2000, the deal quashes early rumours that Sermanni may return at the end of his two years in Japan.

The whole selection process saw AWSA headhunt some of the top coaches including Brisbane Strikers' Frank Farina and American Tony DiCicco.

"AWSA cast its net far and wide and spoke to a lot of people," said Brown.

Brown comes well credentialled both as a coach and player.

He leaves a top position at the Queensland Academy of Sport, a job he first took up in 1994.

Born in Manchester, Brown played as a junior at Old Trafford before playing at senior level at a number of non-league clubs.

He later moved to New Zealand where he played for the Miramar Rangers and represented the Kiwis against a touring USSR side in 1986.

"THERE WAS A LOT OF INTEREST FROM SOME VERY HIGH PROFILE COACHES."

Brown later turned out for both the Parramatta Eagles and West Adelaide in the Ericsson Cup and finished with the distinction of having played for the Socceroos 16 times, including 12 full caps.

Brown's first international assignment will be the US Cup to be played in May-June.

Closer to home Taiwanese side Tao Yuan County took out the National Club's Challenge with a 3-0 win in the final over NSW Insitute of Sport at Easter.

The star of the final was Hung Mei Li who claimed a hat-trick.
